Earlier this morning Barbara Olson called the office two (2) times to speak with [Redacted] who was the secretary that took both of these calls. [Redacted] believes that both calls were collect calls.

[Redacted] was on the phone and said that Barbara is on the line and she's in a panic. [Redacted] was watching the television coverage of the terrorist attack at the World Trade Center (WTC). [Redacted] took the call and heard him say, "hijacked!"

[Redacted] called the DOJ Command Center and asked for a security officer to come to his office. He thought the security officer would be able to talk to Barbara Olson if she called back. He relayed that [Redacted] was on a hijacked plane. [Redacted] then came out of his office and said, "they have knives and they're making them go to the back of the plane."

Barbara Olsen then called back a second time and spoke with [Redacted] who went back to watch the television coverage and saw the crash at the Pentagon. [Redacted] said, "that's Barbara's plane."

The security officer from the DOJ Command Center arrived after the second phone call.
