[redacted] was interviewed at her residence. Also present and participating in the interview was [redacted] SWEENEY was advised of the purpose of the interview and the identities of the interviewing agents. Thereafter, SWEENEY provided the following information:

On September 11, 2001, the morning of the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center (WTC), SWEENEY's son, BRIAN DAVID SWEENEY, date of birth 8/10/63, [redacted] [redacted] called her from a phone aboard his plane, possibly from his cell phone, cell telephone number [redacted] to tell her that his plane had been hijacked. BRIAN SWEENEY may have been on United Airlines Flight 175. At the time of her son's call, SWEENEY noticed that the clock on her kitchen stove read 8:58 a.m. Her conversation with her son was mostly personal. However, with regard to the hijackers, BRIAN SWEENEY told his mother that, "I don't know who they are." SWEENEY also told his mother that the plane's passengers were thinking of storming the cockpit and he believed that the plane was flying somewhere over Ohio. SWEENEY ended his conversation by telling her, "they are coming back." He said goodbye and the call ended. Immediately after their call ended, LOUISE SWEENEY turned on her television and saw the second plane hit the WTC in New York City, New York.

BRIAN SWEENEY was a former F-14 pilot for the United States military. SWEENEY worked for BRANDESS CORPORATION, a Defense contractor located in California. [redacted] (phonetic), work telephone numbers [redacted]
