b7C -4, 6
b7D -1
b7F -1

[redacted] stated that all the soldiers were aware of his stomach problems, and he was taken to the hospital following the beating, where he received an IV and treatment for his facial wounds. [redacted] claimed the camp warden, who is a tall African American male, visited him at the hospital and told the doctors to immediately return him to the camp. [redacted] reported the aforementioned incident to two Red Cross representatives at Camp Delta, who he identified as [redacted] and [redacted]. [redacted] stated he did not do anything to cause the guards to enter his cell, and did everything they instructed him to do. [redacted] had what appeared to be a recent wound on the bridge of his nose.

b7C -4
b7F -1

[redacted] stated that he was put in an isolation cell after he was involved in a dispute over food given to him. [redacted] stated that he is unable to eat certain foods, and was placed in isolation after arguing with a guard.

[REDACTED] traveled to Bosnia in 1995. At the time, he was renting an apartment with his wife and struggling financially. He stated Sheik [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] Saudi Arabia offered to pay his rent and provided him with 7,000 to 10,000 Saudi Riyals if he would agree to journey to Bosnia to fight. He left Saudi Arabia with another man named [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] claimed his motivation for traveling to Bosnia was money and the possibility of meeting a woman. [REDACTED] was married at the time, but indicated the marriage was not working.

[REDACTED] traveled from [REDACTED] Saudi Arabia to Zagreb, Croatia by plane on a Croatian Visa. From Zagreb the two traveled by bus to Split, Croatia. [REDACTED] had an address in Split from his cousin who worked for AL HAI'A AL OLYAA LIJAMI' AL TABAROAT WA LIMOSADAT MUSLIMI AL BOSNIA AL RIYADH. The translation for this name means The High Committee to Collect Donations for the Muslims in Bosnia, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia. This organization was chaired by Saudi Prince SALMAN BIN ABDEL AZIZ. The two stayed at a hotel on the beach in Split for two or three days. They visited the offices of the High Committee in Split. [REDACTED] mentioned the Haramayn organization was also involved in Bosnia while he was there. The Haramayn organization supplied food, medical supplies, and money to the Arab houses in Bosnia. He had no knowledge of any military support provided by Haramayn. Haramayn was chaired by Sheik [REDACTED] and Sheik [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] Haramayn was

They boarded a bus in Split and traveled to Zenica, Bosnia. They met with a group of Arabs fighting with the Bosnian Army. The contact information for this group was provided by [redacted]. The group of Arabs were called AL-KATEEBA. [redacted] stated this group was involved in military operations in Bosnia with the Bosnian Army. They traveled to AL-KATEEBA's headquarters in Zenica and stayed for a few days. [redacted] did not like the AL-KATEEBA group because of the strict discipline and harsh schedule. [redacted] stated he was forced to get up every morning before the sunrise prayer and was not allowed to return to sleep. He pleaded with [redacted] to go to a different group in Bosnia called Al-Zubair. Al-Zubair was also involved in military operations with the Bosnia Army, but was not as strict with discipline. Al-Zubair had Arab houses in Travnik, Tuzla, and another unidentified city. [redacted] stated the Arabs at the houses would get picked up by the Bosnian Army, issued weapons, and taken to fight. There were no weapons present at any of the houses. [redacted] heard AL-KATEEBA and Al-Zubair were receiving weapons through the Croatian mafia from Iran. [redacted] went to the Travnik Arab house where he spent the remainder of his time in Bosnia.

The group flew to Baku, Azerbaijan and stayed at an unidentified hotel in the city. [REDACTED] called a contact at an Arab safe house in an unidentified location and they were driven to the house. When [REDACTED] arrived at the house he unexpectedly met [REDACTED] and another Saudi named [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] spent the next two months at the safe house. During this time, they went on walks, rode the merry-go-round, and went sightseeing. The safe house was a staging area for Arabs traveling to Chechnya to fight, but when [REDACTED] was there the route was closed and no one was able to get into Chechnya. After two months, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were bored and returned home.
